

Card Drop

All you need is a deck of cards and an old oatmeal container with a slit cut in the top. This a great activity for the baby fine motor skills as well! Just take a blanket outdoors. You can also use developmental cards and talk about the picture in the cards as the baby hold the card.