

Ghost Cup Stacking

As an art activity have children draw ghost faces on these white cups using black sharpie markers. Then have children work on some fine motor skill by stacking these little white cups with ghost faces on them! You can challenge the students to see who is able to build the highest tower standing.