

Service Industry Recovery Child Care Available 8/1/2021

In order to support Texas' continued economic recovery, the Texas Workforce Commission (TWC) has implemented Service Industry Recovery (SIR) child care services to help low-wage workers in TWC-specified service industries who generally operate in close quarters with their customers and whose jobs cannot be accomplished remotely.

To qualify for SIR child care:

- At least one parent must be currently employed or entering employment in one of the following TWC-specified service industries:
 - Arts, Entertainment, and Recreation: NAICS 71
 - Accommodation and Food Services: NAICS 72
 - Retail Trade: NAICS 44-45
- Applicants must also meet the Commission's approved income eligibility threshold being at or below 75% of the state's median income (SMI) either monthly or annually, as shown in the following table:

Family Size	TWC Threshold of 75% SMI (Monthly)	TWC Threshold of 75% SMI (Annually)
2	$3,629	$43,549
3	$4,483	$53,796
4	$5,337	$64,043
5	$6,191	$74,290
6	$7,045	$84,537
7	$7,205	$86,458
8	$7,365	$88,380
9	$7,525	$90,301
10	$7,685	$92,222

To apply for SIR Child Care Assistance, please complete the SIR Application below. Then submit the completed application, proof of citizenship for the children and proof that you are employed in a service industry referenced above to us through the Child Care Parent portal by uploading the documentation below.

SIR Application FINAL- English 7.2021

SIR Application FINAL-Spanish 7.2021

If you have questions, please contact our office directly at 940-723-8774.